Schemes for periods ranging from 6 months to 36 months as per text of advertisement filed by the company with the Registrar of Companies office.

(c) and (d) A number of depositors have complained about non-refund of deposits by the company. The Registrar of Companies, Punjab had filed an application before the Hon'ble Company. Law Board, New Delhi under section 58A(9) of the Companies Act, 1956 for passing suo-moto orders directing the company to refund the maturity amount of FDRs to the depositors. The Company Law Board passed an order for repayment of a number of deposits. The company instead of filing the required affidavit of compliance of the Company Law Board order, moved an application on 13.03.2000 seeking grant of extension of time for the compliance of the order. The Company Law Board is yet to pass orders on the request of the company and also on a large number of complaints from depositors.

The Company in the meanwhile has been put in provisional liquidation as per order of Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana passed on 27.07.2000.
